

Catherine Crabtree M.S.

Executive Director, Auburn University at Montgomery, Office of Outreach
<http://www.outreachconsulting.aum.edu/>

Bio:

Cathy has worked with government and business since 1977. She began her career with a community mental health center as a case manager. Her career has included hospital administration, program development and program administration, organizational and business re-engineering, and public policy development and evaluation.

Prior to joining Auburn Montgomery Outreach, Cathy held numerous positions in the private and public sectors. During her eight-year tenure as Assistant Commissioner for Children's Services in Tennessee, she was responsible for merging children's services from five different state agencies into one new agency of state government to improve efficiency. Her private consulting business provided assistance to health and human services agencies and nonprofits across the United States and Canada. Cathy served for two and a half years as Associate Commissioner at the Alabama Department of Mental Health, where she managed two Medicaid Waiver programs and a budget of $450 million dollars.

At Auburn Montgomery Outreach, Cathy has served as the project director for the Streamlining Government organizational efficiency effort of the Alabama Senate Pro Tempore's office. She currently leads the Institute for Accountability and Government Efficiency for Outreach. As Executive Director of Organizational Consulting, Cathy provides oversight for our work with clients in government and business.

Cathy holds a B.S. in Education and a M.S. in Educational Psychology from the University of Tennessee.